

Rosatom Central Europe LLC. gives great significance to the observance of the principles of legality and transparency, does not accept corruption and fights against it in all possible manifestations.

Sharing generally recognized moral and ethical values, Rosatom Central Europe LLC. voluntarily developed and implemented anti-corruption tools within the company. Such tools include, in particular, the Anti-Bribery and Corrupt Practices Policy, which makes it possible to identify and manage situations that constitute corruption risks.

In pursuance of the adopted document, as the head of Rosatom Central Europe LLC., I undertake to adopt a zero tolerance policy towards corruption, namely, to prevent, suppress and punish behavior that is contrary to the Anti-Bribery and Corrupt Practices Policy.

Employees of the company and its partners are required to comply with the requirements of the Anti-Bribery and Corrupt Practices Policy and will be held accountable for non-compliance with our principles and ethical standards.

I accept these obligations and ask you to follow my example.

Sergey Margelov, Managing Director
